Program Description:

In Ontario, there is some confusion amongst members, recreation therapists working in the field, employers, government and others when it comes to understanding the Registration designation and how it compares/contrasts to the CTRS credential. This presentation will focus on understanding the Registration designation and its value in Ontario for those practicing in the field of Therapeutic Recreation, employers who hire Recreation Therapists, and government looking to better understand the therapeutic recreation profession. This presentation will also describe how the Registration designation compares to the CTRS credential so the audience can make informed choices around applying for and/or hiring individuals who hold the Registration designation and/or CTRS.
